

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA COMMUNITY ACTION, INC.

2019 ANNUAL REPORT

Community Action was initially established on November 14, 1965 and was incorporated as Central Pennsylvania Community Action, Inc. (CPCA) on December 14, 1967. The organization embarked on providing services to families and individuals with low to moderate incomes in Centre and Clearfield counties. Today, we have six outreach office locations: in Clearfield County—Clearfield, DuBois, Houtzdale; and Centre County— Aaronsburg, Bellefonte, and Philipsburg. With locations throughout the two counties, CPCA is able to provide our programs and services to the communities, families and individuals we support.

Who We Serve

The following data demonstrates characteristics of those served by Central Pennsylvania Community Action, Inc. in 2019 for whom demographic information was obtained.

In meeting our mission, CPCA provides many programs and services to assist communities, families, and individuals. We maintain partnerships with other organizations to help fill gaps and we offer affordable rental housing and weatherization programs.

In meeting basic needs, Housing, Mortgage and Utility Assistance are offered, as well as, medical transportation and mileage reimbursement to assist Clearfield County residents in-need to attend their medical appointments.

We also help combat food insecurity through our eighteen food pantries located throughout Centre and Clearfield Counties.
